

The EPA has primacy in the state of California. Additional cost information not required.